AUGUST 2ND..GUEST ACT "INTERLUDE"

INTERLUDE is a duo of Ali Lane and Clark Morgan. Together, with guitars, voices and occasional use of piano, they bring their unique arrangements, based on rhythm and harmony, to the hits of yesteryear. Interlude cover the material of well known artists and songwriters including Bob Dylan, Stephen Stills, Pete Seeger, James Taylor, Billy Joel, John Denver, etc. with songs of Peace, of Love and of course Heartache.

Although having formed Interlude just over a year ago, both Ali and Clark have extensive experience accumulated over decades of performance.

Ali is of Maori descent and certainly inherited the wonderful voice and ability to harmonise so synonymous with her people. Clark is known to many of our members, being a past treasurer and current life member of PFC. He has performed on countless occasions over 30 years at the club, both solo and in various group ensembles. We saw Clark perform for us at our 30 year celebrations event, giving us a great mixture of guitar ballads, Bush tunes on the accordion and some piano numbers. Clark won the PFC songwriters competition in 2010 and was runner up in 2009.

WHAT'S COMING UP AT PFC???

SEPTEMBER 6TH : SPOT ACTS ONLY NIGHT

In keeping with our policy of keeping some nights free of Guest Artists to allow maximum time for spot acts, September will be one of those! As always however, to get a spot, you now need to call Evan on 0439 456 544

The night will be preceded by a FREE BEGINNERS GUITAR WORKSHOP which will be led by Evan Webb

OCTOBER 4TH : TIDAL MOON

"Acoustic ripples upon a sea of imagination" - Classical/Celtic meet Folk/Country. Barbara Jeffrey and José Garcia combine a hybrid Celtic/Paraguayan harp and soaring soprano vocals, with the timbre of José's voice and guitar, to form Tidal Moon. The result is a sound akin to bringing the mountains to the sea, minus mudslides or any tsunami-like effects.

Occasionally a flute, charango or bodhran get thrown into the mix, so the story can unfold from the sounds of calming seas to the heavy rumble of 'Fionn' tossing basalt cabers. Barbara's classical and Celtic background harpoons José's country-influenced folk to produce a beast that would snare Captain Ahab's attention. Beautiful traditional, original and contemporary music.

MAINTAINING YOUR STRINGED INSTRUMENTS.

As mentioned on the front page, on our August Club Night, there will be a special feature on maintaining your stringed instruments by Patrick Evans. (Manager of Projects and Product Development at Maton Guitars) between 5.00 and 5.30. It's on early, so as not to interfere with our Jam Sessions and Mandolin Workshop!

For many of us, it's like maintenance on your car... it doesn't happen until something breaks down!!

Patrick will be at PFC doing a spot act on that night and has offered to do a short talk and demonstration on maintaining your stringed instruments. He will discuss cleaning, re-stringing and general maintenance of your precious equipment..

I reckon it will be worth coming that little bit earlier to get Patrick's accumulated wisdom, having been working around musical instruments (as well as playing professionally) for many years.

GENERAL COMMITTEE:

ALAN LAZARUS, JULIE MEADEN, BARRY LARKIN

A question from the floor raised possibility of more frequent concerts. Max explained that he feels that we are asking a lot of committee members and other faithful helpers who arrive at 4 and are usually packing up until after 10.

The Committee has subsequently discussed the matter at length and agreed with Max's initial response. We feel that there are lots of options for our Members and friends who want to play or hear more music.

On page 9 of this Newsletter, we list details of other music clubs and venues that are operating on various weeks each month. If you're looking for Jam Sessions, Plums Jam sessions are twice a month.
