3RD NOV YOUNG TALENT TIME

Part of the evening will highlight "Young Talent time". Max has made it perfectly clear!! Max (or other members of Committee) in a school uniform with shorts a shirt and a tie that is not done up does not constitute "Young". We're looking for performers Under 18 and we allow keyboards to be used that night. Your children , your Grand-children, friends children anyone's children , we don't care. Folk, classical. and all other types of music Ex- cept!!! Rap or Duff Duff. There is no expectation that they must do 3 songs... One or two is fine.... Come along and lets make November a great night. Ring Vince for a booking.

There will still be plenty of opportunity for general spot acts, as apart from the Kids, there will be no "Feature Artist" this month. We would love to hear some of our "sometime" or "occasional" performers and maybe some "newbies"!! First timers are always made welcome. So what about it.? Perhaps join up with one of our more seasoned artists to do a duet or trio??

Non-Members and friends are invited, but it will cost $10 per head. As this is a licensed premise, we ask that you do NOT BYO. The bar will be available during the day for your convenience.

ON OPEN LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT RE THE FOLK FEST

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking everyone for making last night the great success that it was. The only "down side" was that the attendance numbers were down. This was due to the fact that several other functions were on the same date and that tended to draw our regular audience to other venues.

Had our attendance numbers been up we would have been able to increase the performers return and, as was always our plan, raise more money for this years cause that was explained last night. Nevertheless despite this we were able to contribute nearly $400 to that cause.

A big thank you to all of the performers, in particular Yarn Wositzky who had a 2 hour drive to get home after the Concert.

Thank you to the committee and the sound guys and to the performers who gave us a night to remember.

THE SEEKERS RESUME THEIR 50th ANNIVERSARY TOUR

A MATCH-fit Judith Durham will resume the Seekers' 50th Anniversary tour in November. The tour was postponed when Durham suffered a cerebral haemorrhage after the first Melbourne show of the tour on May 14. She has spent three months in the Epworth Hospital and embarked on extensive rehab at home before doctors green light her return to the stage. "I'm very very well, I'm raring to get back to the stage," Durham said today. "It's been such a frustration knowing the incredible support from everyone. All the fans, bless them, instead of asking for their money back which they rightfully should have, none of them did. They've all been in good faith the tour would happen at some point."

Durham, who turned 70 in July, admitted her recovery from the life-threatening health shock was assisted by early treatment. "I believe with a cerebral haemorrhage there's a 30 per cent chance you can die, that came as a bit of a bomb-shell. When you have this kind of thing happen you can lose your movement. Because I had attention in the first three hours of something not being quite right it means I have considerable abilities now I could have lost quite easily. We are going to appreciate this reunion on yet another level now. We can't take each other for granted."

The band had a private rehearsal in Melbourne two weeks ago to test Durham's vocals. The re-scheduled Australian tour starts in Perth at Riverside Theatre on November 2 and 3, then returns to Melbourne's Hamer Hall on November 7, 8 and an extra show on November 28, Adelaide's AEC Theatre on November 11 and 12, Sydney's State Theatre November 15, Wollongong's Entertainment Centre on November 19, Hobart's Derwent Entertainment Centre on November 23, Launceston's Princess Theatre on November 25, Toowoomba's Empire Theatre on December 2 and Brisbane's Convention Centre on December 4.

18th October Grandsons of the Pioneers Having all come from a background of playing in bands for a combined total of about 160 years, the "Grandsons" came together initially to have a social pick together on weekends, enjoying playing and singing songs with a lean towards "Country", and in particular, traditional Western Cowboy music.

They eventually built up a repertoire of songs which featured four part harmony vocals accompanied by acoustic guitars. Leo suggested recording the songs in his home studio which resulted in the production of this CD. So sit back, relax, go back in time and enjoy the harmonious singing and picking of " The Grandsons Of The Pioneers " on their debut album " Happy Trails ".

The Grandsons of the Pioneers are..... John Tippett, acoustic bass and vocals Bill Jeffrey, acoustic guitar and vocals Con Anag, nylon string guitar and vocals Leo Dalton, acoustic guitar and vocals
