BANKSIA BULLETIN AUGUST 2020

We wish we were “Making Music Magic in 2020”

GRRR.. MUSIC LOCKDOWN!

Music withdrawal. We are all missing the pleasure of sitting around playing music with our friends and enjoying watching people perform on stage.

We were hoping that we would be able to get back together in September. But this latest Lockdown means that's not going to happen!

We'd love to tell you when we will be back on deck (or on stage) but that is outside our control.

As we were unable to hold our Annual General Meeting in July, we will need to schedule it as soon as we can after Lockdown and we have deferred that until September and will combine that with our regular monthly Concert. To vote at the AGM you need to be a financial member and as we have been unable to do any concerts the last few months we are extending ends!!

We are still hoping to be able to run The big “Break Out” weekend at Yarra Junction in November. Three days of music and socializing.

You can Caravan on site, Sleep in a tent, Book one of the free huts or stay at a local B and B or motel. Bring your family with you, Children, Grandchildren or friends. It is not just for Folk Club members but anyone who wants to come. All of this in a beautiful bush setting close to Warburton and Yarra Junction.

Entertainment

EVAN Webb and Clarke at Last Call Coffee Shop.

The lure of folk music

THE end of the week gets pretty boring watching Sixty Minutes, followed by the Sunday night movie.

Spend one Sunday night doing that but when the second one comes around, why not grab the kids and call in at the Last Call Coffee Shop in Rossmith Ave, Frankston.

Every second Sunday, Last Call holds a folk club night.

Admission is only $1 for non-members and 50c for members and the biggest attraction is that children aren't black-banned.

No alcohol is allowed but there are plenty of other compensations.

The entertainment is non-stop and ranges from Tim and Debbie impersonations to a good old jam session.

All the artists performing are members of the club and occasionally there are also guest artists.

Next Sunday, 17 February, Rick E Vengeance, 3RRR disc jockey, will be playing guitar and singing.

The club is a non-profit organisation and the fastest growing folk club in Melbourne.

Already plans are under way for a bush dance on Sunday 17 March and the club's ultimate ambition is to hold a folk festival.
